

Join the team that is leading the World in Convenience.

Based in Dallas, Texas, the company operates, franchises and licenses approximately 8,000 stores in the U.S. and Canada. Of the close to 6,000 stores the company operates and franchises in the United States, more than 4,700 are franchised. Overseas, 7-Eleven licensees and affiliates operate more than 41,000 7-Eleven and other convenience stores in countries including Japan, Taiwan, Thailand, South Korea, China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Mexico, Singapore, Australia, Philippines, Indonesia, Norway, Sweden and Denmark. 7-Eleven currently opens a new location every 3 ½ hours and is the world's largest retailer. With this growth it provides our employees professional growth opportunities like no other company.

Retail Store Manager

As a Store Manager, you'll essentially run a small business, with an international company behind you. You'll oversee store operations, supervise employees, manage inventory and promote 7-Eleven to your customers and community. You'll maximize sales and profits by using sound business practices to implement the 7-Eleven strategy...all the while setting a standard for customer satisfaction by making your store a model of our company's Five Fundamentals; Quality, Assortment, Service, Value and Cleanliness.

What Will You Do?

Oversee store operations, supervise employees and manage inventory
Develop successful sales plans to grow your store's profitability
Implement new product lines and create strategies to introduce and promote them to our customers
Set standards and model behavior for optimum customer service
Recruit, train, develop and motivate your employees
Promote 7-Eleven to your customers and community

Getting There

We believe great training is the foundation for exceptional performance. The Store Manager training program combines classroom and in-store training on store operations, merchandising concepts and procedures, financial information and employee relations.
