

K-12 Teachers of English Needed in Sichuan, China

Over the last three years, ELIC has been given amazing favor with officials in the earthquake region of China's Sichuan Province. This has opened the way for a wide array of strategic opportunities there - teacher training, a variety of summer teams and both short and long-term opportunities. One of the region's key needs is K-12 teachers for the academic year beginning late July 2012. If you have a passion for K-12 education and are open to a key overseas assignment, please contact Ashley.Pintaric@elic.org at 970.530.3841.

ELIC is a non-profit education organization that has been placing Christian teachers in Asia for over 30 years and currently has over 270 teachers in China, Cambodia, Vietnam, Laos, Mongolia and Myanmar. Check out www.elic.org for videos, photos and more information. We can get you there.
