

Initiating a Discussion Thread

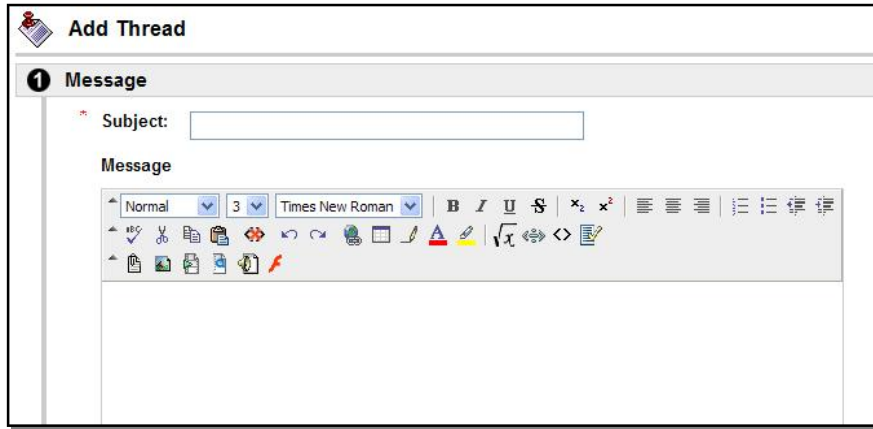

Discussion threads are posts submitted to the discussion board on a specific topic or theme.

1. You can access the discussion board by
 - a. Selecting the Communication link, then selecting the Discussion Board link from the communication page, or
 - b. Selecting the discussion board link from the main course menu, if available.
2. The discussion board page appears and displays Discussion forums. Select the link for the Discussion forum of choice.

Forum	Total Posts	Unread Posts	Total Participants
Introduction Introduce yourself to the rest of your peers. Tell them your name and the program you are in. Indicate what you expect to get out of this course. Also share how far along in the program you are.	8	6	5
Conflict in the church: Part A What, in your opinion, are some of the most predictable times of conflict in the church. Discuss ways which you think this conflict can be avoided? Identify other examples of conflict in the bible citing the nature of the conflict.	2	2	2
Course Cafe Post here any questions you have for the instructor or interesting resources you would like to share with your peers.	0	0	0

3. When the forum page appears, select the Add Thread icon.

4. When the Add Thread page appears, complete the form.
 - a. Type the thread subject.
 - b. Type the message of the thread.

5. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click the Submit button.

