

EASTERN UNIVERSITY

Student Commitment of Finances Form

In order to determine your intent to support financially your education at Eastern University, please read the following instructions very carefully and complete the six steps.

1. Answer all questions in Part A with complete responses.
2. If you are contributing financially to your education, indicate your full name and the specific amount of money (U.S. dollars) you will commit for each year in Part B. The length of the degree program to which you are applying determines how many years you will need to show funding.
3. Attach to this form, an official bank statement or other proof of assets which confirms the availability of the funds to be submitted for the first year.
4. Notarize both documents ("Student's Commitment of Finances" and Bank Statement) by obtaining an official signature and stamp/seal from a bank officer or other legal authority in order to verify the authenticity of the information. (In the U.S., this is done by a public notary.)
5. Submit both the form and attachments to the admissions office. Be sure to make copies of these two documents for your records.
