Fellowship of Christian Athletes Wadman Fellows Development Program
Application for Admission

This program is designed to train Eastern University students for the relational ministry of Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) in order to proclaim the whole Gospel to the whole world.

While earning a bachelor’s degree at Eastern University, students will:
- be trained through a semester-long leadership training course
- receive practical experience through a semester-long apprentice program
- experience FCA leadership over the course of their remaining 3 years
- travel on camp trips with their high school FCA group

At the end of a student’s Eastern experience, he/she will have:
- impacted lives of high school students for Christ
- developed valuable leadership qualities in any area of life
- experienced training in relational ministry

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR FCA STUDENTS AT EASTERN UNIVERSITY
There are two (2) scholarships for students involved in FCA that can total up to $2,000 per year.

1) Any student admitted to Eastern University, involved in FCA in high school will receive a $1,000 scholarship based on their high school involvement in FCA.
   Scholarship Requirements: Submit a letter of recommendation from your local FCA staff person in addition to the application.*

2) Any Eastern student who enrolls the summer before their first semester to participate in Eastern’s leadership training course, will receive a $1,000 scholarship. Students must be involved in FCA or another Eastern-sponsored ministry to maintain this scholarship beyond the first year.*

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS
- Acceptance and enrollment to Eastern University’s College of Arts and Sciences
- Completed FCA Development Program application
- Submitted reference letter from current FCA leader or area director if you have participated in FCA

* Cannot be combined with any President’s Circle awards or awards offered upon acceptance resulting in amounts exceeding $16,000. President’s Circle awards include: National Scholastic Award, The Templeton Honors College Grant, The Leadership Fellows Grant, The Goode Scholars Scholarship and The Howard Fellows Grant.
