Banking Information-Electronic Refund

Direct deposit provides additional security to employees, students and the college because it reduces the potential for lost checks and check fraud. The direct deposit authorized by your acknowledgement on this form is accomplished by a process known as electronic funds transfer (EFT) from our originating bank. The process involves submission of an encrypted file through FTP.

It is covered by a number of Federal regulations designed to safeguard the integrity of your account information. Any attempts of fraud by this transaction could be subject to felony prosecution under both federal and state laws.

Cancellation of this authorization may be accomplished by selecting delete on this Bank Account Authorization form.
