

Young Life Ballbach Fellows Development Program Application for Admission

This program is designed to train Eastern University students for the relational ministry of Young Life. While earning a bachelor's degree at Eastern University, students will:

- be trained through a semester-long leadership course
- receive practical experience through a semester-long apprentice program
- experience Young Life club leadership over the course of their remaining 3 years
- travel on camp trips with their Young Life group

At the end of a student's Eastern experience, he/she will have:

- impacted lives of high school students for Christ
- developed valuable leadership qualities
- experienced training in relational ministry

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG LIFE STUDENTS AT EASTERN UNIVERSITY

There are three (3) scholarships for students involved in Young Life that can total up to $4,000 per year.

1. Any student admitted to Eastern University and involved in Young Life in high school will receive a $1,000 scholarship based on their high school involvement in Young Life.
Scholarship Requirements: Submit a letter of recommendation from your Young Life staff person in addition to the application.*
2. Any Eastern student who enrolls the summer before their first semester to participate in Eastern's leadership training course will receive a $1,000 scholarship. Students must be involved in Young Life or another Eastern-sponsored ministry to maintain this scholarship beyond the first year.*
3. The Young Life Development Program Matching Grant is a partnership between Young Life and Eastern University. Eastern will match any funds provided by Young Life on your behalf (up to $1,000).

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

- Acceptance and enrollment to Eastern University's College of Arts and Humanities
- Completed Young Life Development Program application
- If you have participated in Young Life in the past, submit a reference letter from current Young Life leader or area director
- If applying for Matching Grant, complete Young Life/Church Matching form

* Cannot be combined with any President's Circle awards or awards offered upon acceptance resulting in amounts exceeding $16,000. President's Circle awards include: National Scholastic Award, The Templeton Honors College Grant, The Leadership Fellows Grant, The Goode Scholars Scholarship, and The Howard Fellows Grant.
