CAS	Bible			The Princess Bride	Your staff is wonderful and always so helpful. I've had both Joy and Andrea speak with my classes over the last few years and have received great feedback from the students about how much they learned and how valuable it was to be instructed by a Librarian on how to better use the Library's resources and how to do better online research. I have highly recommended using your services to my colleagues. Thanks for all of your hard work!

THC	It depends on what I am reading; LOTR, Divine Comedy, Count of Monte Cristo, The Squire's Tales (series), ...	Tolkien	none	none	Because one of my courses (Honors NT) is designated as the course in which Templeton Honors College students fulfill the requirement for information literacy, I use a class period to introduce them to the library website (searches, (databases, catalog), subject headings (which is always new to them), ILL, &c.). I used the library staff to do this once, but they found it not nearly as helpful as working through things with me. Everyone brings a laptop, smartphone, table, &c., and we do stuff together in a way that is helpful (according to them). I say this without intending any offense; I do appreciate your offers to help. Sincerely, fred putnam
